

AEC 2008

TERTIARY AWARD SCHEME

The AEC in collaboration with Industry Partners aim to encourage NSW Indigenous Australian students to undertake tertiary studies in a NSW University.

	SCHOOL LEAVERS AWARDS — Max 4 years
	Awarded on a combination of school examination results, University Admission Index (UAI) and other achievements (leadership, creativity, self-motivation, communication skills etc) entering an approved NSW University.
	AEC Tertiary Study Awards There are 4 awards available annually. <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Merit: minimum UAI 85, worth $5,000 per year, max 4 years.
	NSW Dept of Education & Training — Teaching Awards There are 3 awards available, awarded on a combination of school examination results, University Admission Index (UAI) and other achievements (leadership, creativity, self-motivation, communication skills etc) entering an approved NSW University. <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Merit: minimum UAI 85, worth $5,000 per year, max 4 years.
2	MICK YOUNG AWARD — Max 4 years
	This award is open to all NSW Indigenous students enrolled in an approved course of study at a NSW University. Demonstrate financial disadvantage, usually by current receipt of a means tested commonwealth benefit (including Abstudy, Austudy, youth allowance, or means tested pension). Applications will be ranked on basis of eligibility and merit. <ul style="list-style-type: none">• 1 award at $5,000 per year, max 4 years.
3	INCENTIVE AWARDS
	These awards are open to all NSW Indigenous students enrolled in an approved course of study at a NSW University. Demonstrate financial disadvantage, usually by current receipt of a means tested commonwealth benefit (including Abstudy, Austudy, youth allowance, or means tested pension). Applications will be ranked on basis of eligibility and merit. Applicants will be considered for all awards; only one application will be required.
	Ken Brindle Awards There are four awards available at $5,000 each for one year only.
	Unico Computer Systems Award Two awards available at $2,000 each for 1 year only.

Application forms for 2008 can be obtained from our website at <http://www.aec.org.au>